To Imagine?

“Imagine” . . . our school without him.

“[In The Great Art Of Teaching] . . . We Must Learn To Read The Childish Soul As We Might A Piece Of Music. Then By Simply Changing The Key, We Keep Up The Attraction And Vary The Song.”

— Henri-Frederic Arniel

Since the beginning of time, teachers have advanced the ways students think and have raised their awareness to higher levels. They have given students the encouragement and understanding that is critical to their success and, of equal importance, the sense of humor that is necessary to living.

The WLHS Class of '98 has a long list of people to thank for advancing the collective process of learning but one teacher stands out in our minds and hearts as an example of the very best. This man is no stranger to WLHS, having taught in the English Department since 1971. He has worn many hats over these years from Yearbook Advisor and Senior Play Props Director to Area Leader and member of the Teacher Leadership Group. He has been a mentor to both staff and students. He is sought out for his leadership skills, his integrity, his knowledge of literature and his undeniable wit. For many, he brings alive the English language and presents it in an understandable and entertaining manner.

The Class of 1998 publicly thanks Mr. James Francoeur for taking the time to accept nothing but our best, for teaching us how to write and speak effectively and for his zany ways of making Shakespeare, Keats, and Byron easy to understand and appreciate. It is said that a teacher effects eternity. For his incredible impact on all of our lives, the Class of 1998 dedicates the 1998 Herald to Mr. James Francoeur.

Seniors

Four years ago, when we first entered the halls of WLHS, we felt eager to . . . graduate! We could only imagine what those next years would be like for us. Now we look back and reminisce about the wonderful memories we have gathered. We realize how important these times have been for us. To those who follow us, we would like to pass on this message . . . “don’t be in a hurry . . . take advantage of every opportunity . . . enjoy every minute.” You will only fully appreciate these four years when you look back through the eyes of a senior. We leave these halls with new dreams and anticipation of what is ahead of us. We can only imagine . . . The Class of 1998 wishes all those who follow the best of luck.

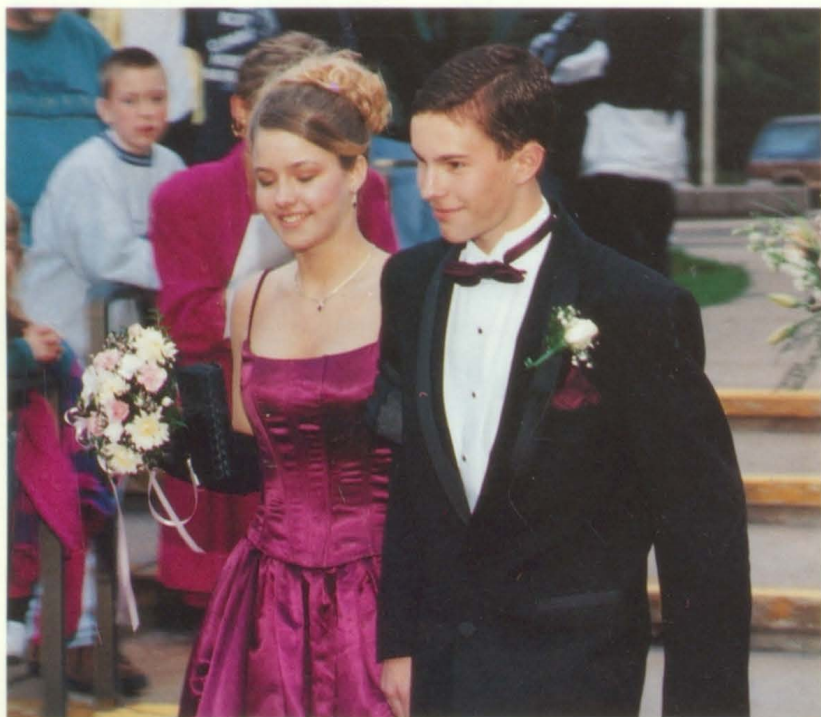

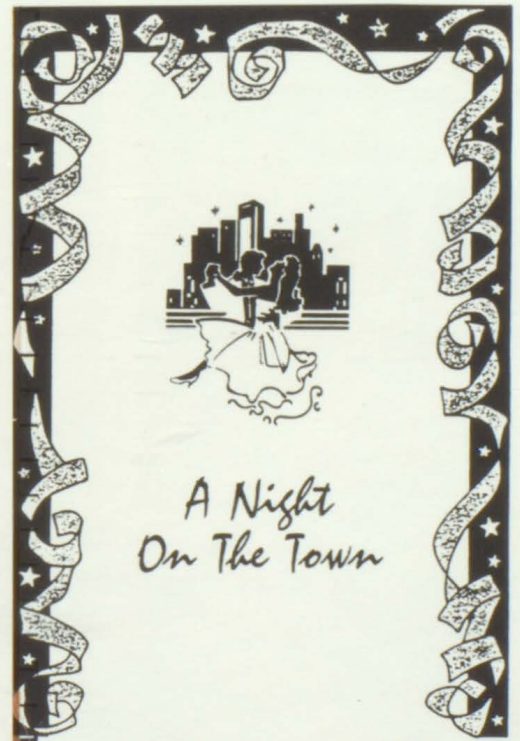

*“I Am Certain Of Nothing But
The Truth Of
One’s Imagination. What a
Person Can Imagine
Can Seize Things as Both
Beauty and Truth,
Whether It Exists Or Not.”*

— Benjamin Bailey

We imagined a "Night on the Town" in some of the world's most elegant cities and it came true! Paris, France; New York, New York; Venice, Italy; The Mardi Gras in New Orleans; London, England; and a sunset walk on the Boardwalk in Atlantic City.

Imagine what a few of our teachers said when we asked them what they liked best about teaching: "The kids. Since I will be retiring this year, I know that I will miss these associations in the future." - Mr. Stine; "What I like best about teaching is seeing the look of understanding on the face of a student who realizes or discovers something he/she did not understand before; that look makes it all worthwhile." - Mr. LaPlaca; "Teaching is the most challenging, frustrating, vexing and intensely satisfying career I have ever had and I wouldn't change anything about it." - Mrs. Salling

About My Daughter

That day, the day you were born, was the most exhilarating day of my life. Ask me how I spent the morning; ask who came to call; ask me anything about that day and I'll know every detail. Most of all I remember how beautiful you looked. I was so proud of you and me. I should have been filled with doubts about whether I could do right by you but on the contrary, I knew I was ready! I had a plan. I would love you too much; I would protect you for a while; I would teach you how to fly on your own. You might leave my nest, my daughter, but if I did my job well you'd be back, as my friend.

Melinda I love you, Mom

Melinda —

Take the enthusiasm and compassion you've been bestowed, and help shape a world which truly needs your courage.

Love Dad

Kim,

From the wonderful moment I was blessed with your birth you have filled my life with love, pride, and joy. I was always glad to be there when you needed advice or ideas or if you just needed ears to listen, arms to hold you and a heart to always love you unconditionally. As you become a woman who gets ready to venture forth into the world and mold your future, know that you can still always come to me for advice and that you always have my ears, arms and heart. I'm so very, very proud of you.

Love you always,

Mom

Clever wordplays like ICULKN, 2D14 and 10SANY1 won't garner the attention they so desperately seek with an all-new Accord V-6 Coupe. How could they, with our sporty new design and 200-horsepower VTEC V-6 engine? Or standard luxury features like an 8-way power adjustable driver's seat, air conditioning, power windows and door locks, and cruise control? But don't take our word for it — come in for a test drive. And experience for yourself an Accord like no other.

Editors' Note

Why would anyone want to be an editor of a yearbook? We have asked that question many times during this past year, especially when we had no fixed room to work in; when we had to learn a new computer program that always had a glitch; when we were down to a staff of one or two; and when we misplaced pictures and pages for the 50th time. Imagine the frustration of not really knowing what you're doing until you actually sit down to do it. But also imagine the feeling of finally laying out the last page and putting it in the mail.

We wanted to be editors because it is a wonderful feeling to know that we portrayed your high school years as well as ours. We hope that we were able to show them the way you want to remember and cherish them. We took our jobs seriously and hope every member of the senior class is represented the way they want to be remembered. The 1998 Herald is the best book we could publish with the limited funds we had.

Imagine the importance of this book when we get ready for our 20th high school reunion. We will have gone on to fulfill our own dreams, but this book will be our anchor to 1998, the year we graduated from WLHS (We had the reputation of being the worst class in history). Imagine the Class of 1998 showing everyone they were wrong. Good luck in the years to come.

Sincerely
